

ANOTHER STEP IS TAKEN IN MANOA IMPROVEMENTS

Manoa assessment ordinance, designed to serve as a model for all of the assessment ordinances under the Lantage tax laws that are to come, passed first reading at last night's meeting of the supervisors, but was not ordered to print. A. M. Cristy, first deputy city attorney, who has put in several weeks' work on it, thinks there may still be a technical flaw or two in the ordinance and wants another chance to examine it before the expense of advertising it is incurred.

Including the property descriptions, which will not have to be published, there are several hundred pages in the copy of the ordinance submitted to the board last night. It made a document some half dozen inches thick and when it was passed to the clerk for reading there were many loud groans from the usually patient members of the board. Fortunately for their peace of mind the greater part of the document consisted of property descriptions, which it was not necessary to read.

There is nothing new in the ordinance. It appropriates the city's share of the improvement cost, assesses the property owners, setting forth the rate ($0.1967 in "A" district and $0.0203 in "B" district) and the amount due from each owner; makes it the duty of the tax collector to collect the assessments; sets forth that all assessments not paid within 30 days are to be distributed over 10 years in installments; legally makes the assessments a first lien upon the property in the district and does a hundred and one things long known to be necessary.

To prepare teachers for examinations to be held the first week in August, the department of public instruction will conduct the usual summer school this year, beginning early in July.

MEMO'S OF MEETING OF CITY SUPERVISORS

Payrolls were passed.

The next meeting will be Tuesday night.

Makiki fire station had $750 appropriated for repairs.

Hearing on the Sea View improvement project was postponed from May 2 to May 9 by action of the board.

The building department filed a report of its expenditures for March.

Dance hall ordinance amendments submitted by Judge W. L. Whitney were referred to the police committee.

The old Pail road is badly in need of repair, according to a petition signed by 10 property owners presented to the board. It was sent to the road committee.

Certified checks submitted with the bids on Manoa and Lusitana improvements will be returned today. The board authorized their return on advice of the attorney.

Supervisor Larsen's sewer ordinance came up for second reading, and, after a rather stormy debate on the necessity for amendments to it, was tabled until the next meeting.

Bids for the construction of a new and larger culvert for the branch of Nuuanu stream which crosses Nuuanu avenue near the Country Club, will be called for by order of the board this week.

Merchants on Alaia place petitioned the board asking that it be sprinkled at least twice a day, as it was very dusty and dust spoiled their goods. The petition was referred to the road committee.

Samuel K. Onoha, chief clerk in the water department, was granted a month's vacation with two week's pay. He has not had a vacation for six years and has important business on the mainland to attend to now.

A petition asking permission to establish an automobile stand for three machines at the end of the King street car line at Fort Shafter was referred to the police committee, along with a protest against the granting of the desired permission by abutting property owners.

The park committee had two communications referred to it. One, from the city planning commission, asked that a spot in Kapiolani Park, picked by the commission, be set aside for the coronation fountain to be presented to the city by the Japanese residents. The other asked that $700 be appropriated in order that Liliuokalani Park in Nuuanu might be taken over by the city.

New curbs will be put in the streets in the Auwahi tract, which the territory is going to improve, and old curbs will be reset where necessary. The city and county clerk was instructed to call for bids on specifications already prepared by the engineer at last night's meetings. It will cost the city $200 for resetting of old curbing and $2800, to be refunded by the property owners benefited, will be spent for new curbing, according to the engineer's estimate.

When a carload of steel, shipped from Youngstown, Ohio, to a carriage plant at Cortland, N. Y., was opened, Frank Carroll of Syracuse, N. Y., was found dead in the car, dead from starvation.

COMPANY D WINS OUT IN NINTH INNING AT POST IN I CONTEST

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence.)
SCHOOLFIELD BARRACKS, April 13.—As the 1st Infantry Regimental League draws to a close the games seem to get better and better and the rivalry between teams more keen. There was a fine game staged today, when D Company defeated I Company 7 to 6. It was a close, exciting game right up to the finish. Not until two were out in the last half of the ninth did D Company, by two opportune hits, bring in the winning run. I Company started off with two runs in the first and held the lead until D passed them in the last half of the fifth. I Company came right back in the sixth, and by making four tallies changed the score from 4 to 2 against them to 6 to 4 in their favor.

D Company tied the score in their half of the sixth and the score remained unchanged until the last of the ninth, when D slipped over the winning run. D Company out-hit Company I almost two to one, but Johnson, who pitched for the "eyes," kept bingles pretty well scattered. One feature—which fortunately has been conspicuous by its absence during most of the league games—tended to mar an otherwise good game. That was a tendency to wrangle over several decisions of Umpire Maddes. Maddes is, and was in the game today, one of the best umpires officiating in the league, and all of the growls and kicks today were unjustifiable.

The score: R. H. E.
Co. D ..... 0 0 0 1 3 2 0 1—7 11 2
Co. I ..... 2 0 0 0 4 0 0 0—6 6 2

Batteries—Company D, Tammany and Allen; Company I, Johnson, Collins and Gunter. Home runs, Hollis, I Co.; three-base hit, Border, D Co.; struck out, by Tammany 10, by Johnson 9; bases on balls, off Tammany 4, off Johnson 2.

MAKE GOVERNOR ISSUE IN WARM BOURBON FIGHT

he meetings at Pauoa and Emma Square.

The rival tickets in tomorrow's election are as follows:

"Pinkham Ticket."
For national committeeman—William P. Jarrett, present high sheriff.

For delegates to the national convention—Joseph J. Fern, ex-mayor; G. J. Waller and Manley G. K. Hopkins.

"McCandless Ticket."
For national committeeman—John H. Wilson, present national committeeman.

For delegates to the national convention—L. L. McCandless, M. C. Pacheco and Jesse Uluhi.

A. A. Wilder is running independently for delegate to the convention, but the others say he has no chance at all. Both factions also have some candidates for members of the territorial central committee for this island. Six are to be elected in each district, but the fight over these is not as hot as for national committeemen and delegates to the national convention.

When Ex-Mayor Fern lined up with the Pinkham faction, it was regarded as a sign of strength for that side, but now the anti-Pinkham Bourbons declare not only that the Pinkham faction will be beaten tomorrow, but that next fall if Fern attempts to run for mayor again he will be fought tooth and nail.

High Sheriff Jarrett is on the island of Hawaii on official business this week and it is declared also that he is doing much politics there.

Land Commissioner Rivenburgh is credited with being the brains of the Pinkham campaign, though it is known that he does not relish the political fight that has developed. Col. McCarthy, territorial treasurer, was expected to be a leader in the fight for the Pinkham slate, but went to the coast on business, so the managers of the campaign fell upon the shoulders of another member of the governor's official family. He, however, has been busy with the duties of his office, particularly with the Kanai trip, and the Pinkham faction is not nearly so well organized nor confident of victory as the other.
